IS IT FLYNN AGAIN?

That is the Opinion of Oklahoma Republican Leaders.

WILL HE MAKE THE RUN?

The Only Question Appears to Be
Whether the Present Delegate
Will Accept Renomination.

Enid Ok. May 15.—Dennis Flynn in spite of his protests, will be the nominee of the convention to be held at Enid June 25, unless there is a marked party in the next two weeks. This is the opinion not only of friends of Flynn, but of men who would work to defeat him. It is not improbable, however, that Flynn would decline the nomination, as he has said repeatedly he would do if nominated.

President Roosevelt is urging Dennis Flynn to be a candidate for renomination. He has said that, with Flynn as its leader, the welfare of the party in Oklahoma was safe and he would hold Flynn responsible for results in the election this fall. He did not think that Flynn should retire at this time, if, by so doing, party supremacy might be endangered. President Roosevelt was receiving a delegation of Oklahomans when he expressed his opinion as to what Flynn should do. He was surprised when told that Flynn had declared himself unalterably opposed to being a candidate and for making the race for renomination.

The sentiment favoring Flynn's renomination has been a strong under current in his party ever since the question of a candidate was discussed. It has grown rapidly and been given wider expression since the meeting of the Republican committee here last Saturday. The Flynn men were in the majority last Saturday, and did not hesitate in saying that the only thing to do was to nominate him.

THE LEADERS CAN'T UNITE

Flynn's boom would never have gained its present force had a candidate appeared who could have drawn to him the united support of the party leaders. Neither McGuire, McNeal nor Morgan has been able to do this. In trying to unite upon one of these candidates, party leaders who have worked together for years found themselves divided and unable to reach an agreement.

This means a fight in the convention. The factional differences in the party are too great to permit, with safety, any differences of opinion among members of any faction.

The party needs all its strength to combat the opposition. Leaders in some of the counties have announced already that their conventions will instruct their delegates to vote for Flynn. Men who are encouraging this Flynn boom agree that Flynn will gain nothing, even if nominated and elected, as he would be able to advance his personal interests in a far more satisfactory manner in private life, but they contend that there is no other alternative than to nominate him.

This vicarious candidacy of Flynn will not be received kindly by candidates now in the field. Each man feels that the race should be free for all, and that after having announced his candidacy it would be unfair to ask him to withdraw in favor of anybody. The candidates will carry their convictions into the convention, and be able to ask the convention why it should give the nomination to a man who says he will not accept it and turn down men who already have made a canvass of the territory.

STRONG IN THE COUNTRY.

Flynn is now strongest in the country and weakest in the towns, in the opinion of persons who have studied the situation, although this reveals what the returns in 1900 were alleged to show. It was the purpose of the committee last Saturday to call the convention at a time when the farmers could attend.

The crop season is late in Oklahoma this year. The first week of June would have found the farmers preparing for harvest. The Republicans will be lucky if they do not find them busily at work when the convention is held.

Read the Democrat For News.

In our Monday's issue will appear a complete write up of the wonderful ice plant of our city. It is the largest in the new country and one of the largest in Oklahoma, having a capacity of 75 tons per day. It is rapidly approaching completion and the Democrat is the first paper in this city to announce that its engines will first start on next Monday and volumes of smoke from the immense stacks that tower eighty feet above the main buildings, will announce to the citizens of Anadarko that one of our great industries is an assured reality, a source of profit and progress for the Queen City of the Washita. In fact the Democrat is first and foremost with all the news. If it happens you will find it in the Democrat.

On Thursday we published the full text of a legal opinion by Attorney General Roberts which involves three of our county officers.

We also gave detailed figures showing the condition of affairs in the sheriff's office. It was the first time this important and far reaching opinion had ever appeared in print and was a complete scoop for the Democrat. Yesterday our esteemed contemporary the Tribune published the same letter, 24 hours late and evidently taken from the Democrat for we know that they did not secure the letter from Judge Crum to whom the opinion was sent. Another day this week we scooped them on the story of the new $35,000 hotel which is to be erected at the corner of 5th and Divers Avenue, the Democrat being the only paper that gave a detailed description of this handsome structure which will soon be erected.

We have all the facilities for getting out an up-to-date newsy daily and the people have shown their appreciation of this fact by the way our subscription list has grown during the last month. We deliver it at your home for 10c per week.

Three Men Held For Murder.

Vinita I. T., May 15.—N. J. Pace, John Pace and William Mayfield, who were participants in a fight at Collinsville, April 19, in which a man named Phillips was killed and several other persons were wounded, were arraigned in the United States court yesterday on charges of murder. The men all entered pleas of not guilty and were committed to the Muskogee jail to await trial at the next term of court O. S. Skidmore who was shot in fight, continues in a critical condition. He is under guard and as soon as his condition permits, will be removed to Muskogee for his preliminary hearing.

The Indian Bill is Indefinite.

Vinita, I. T., May 15.—Judge Gill adjourned the regular spring term of the United States court yesterday on account of the uncertainty of the time when the provision in the Indian appropriation dividing the Northern district will go into effect. Complications would arise if court was held in the Northern district after the new law became operative. Judge Gill fixed September 15, 1902, as the date for holding the first term of court in the Northern district under the new law.

Oklahoma And the Beef Trust.

Guthrie, Okla., May 15.—The United States attorney of Oklahoma Mr. Speed, has received instructions from the Department of Justice at Washington to get affidavits throughout Oklahoma from cattle growers and consumers of beef to show the relation of the price of the live animal to the price of the finished product, for the use of the department in the investigation of the alleged packers combine, or Beef Trust.

A Fine Dentist.

Dr. J. W. Jones has located in the city and opened a fine suit of rooms in the Shields building.

His office room is in the rear of the hall over the grocery firm of Crawford, Jay & Co. He comes from Georgia and has some of the finest recommendations both as a dentist and as a gentleman of his integrity that we have ever seen. They are from bankers, business and professional men. Dr. Jones makes a specialist in bridge and crown work and we are glad to welcome him to Anadarko.

To the Public.

I hereby notify all business men and other responsible parties, that I will not pay or obligate myself for any debt that may be incurred by Louie Nicholson.
